When You Need a FIGHTER...

With more than 15 multi-million dollar trials or settlements under his belt, Guy manages the firm from the Stuart, Florida office. He has about 100 trials and nearly a thousand depositions over his career in the areas of personal injury, medical malpractice, business and employment litigation, civil rights, class actions, product liability claims and other complex litigation matters. Guy has litigated employment cases against corporate giants like as General Motors, Wal-Mart, HCA, and Tyco International, and taken on the biggest insurance companies in death and serious injury cases all around Florida and the United States.

Guy is a member of the Florida Bar, Federal District Courts for Southern, Middle and Northern Districts of Florida, the 11th Circuit in Atlanta and is a member of numerous trial lawyer associations and charities. He is also a mediator, a graduate of FSU (BS) 1983 and Nova Southeastern (JD) 1987. He is happily married; his two daughters are pursuing careers in California. Guy is a pilot, certified diver, aspiring chef and has a great love of music, sports and technology.
